Read the following passage, then answer the questions:Omar Ibn Al-Khattab

Omar ibn Al-Khattab, may Allah be pleased with him, was the second Caliph of Islam after Abu Bakr. He accepted Islam in the early days and became one of the closest companions of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. Omar was known for his strong personality, deep faith, and great sense of justice.

As Caliph, Omar worked hard to serve the people and protect the Muslim nation. Under his leadership, Islam spread to many countries such as Egypt, Persia, and Syria. He established laws that protected the rights of Muslims and non-Muslims, and he created systems for education, security, and justice.

Omar was also very humble. He lived a simple life, ate simple food, and wore simple clothes. He cared about the poor, visited widows and orphans, and even carried food on his own shoulders to help those in need. Because of his courage, honesty, and fairness, Omar ibn Al-Khattab is remembered as one of the most influential and respected leaders in Islamic history. His life remains a shining example of true leadership and responsibility.
