The Bike Accident

Last Saturday, Omar and Sami were playing outside. It was a sunny afternoon, and they felt happy. Omar was riding his bike fast, and Sami was running beside him. Suddenly, a dog crossed the street. Omar got scared and tried to stop his bike, but he fell down. He hurt his knee, and his hand started to bleed. Sami shouted, "Are you okay?" and ran to help him. A man who lived nearby saw the accident and came quickly. He gave Omar some water and told them, "You shouldn't play on the street. Always wear a helmet when you ride your bike." Omar thanked the man and promised to be more careful next time.
