Ali is a student in grade six. He loves running very much. Every year, his school has a big race. All the students can join the race. Ali wakes up early on the day of the race. He eats a healthy breakfast and wears his sports clothes. He feels excited but a little nervous. At school, many students are ready. The teacher explains the rules. The race starts at the playground and ends near the school gate.

When the race begins, Ali runs fast. At first, he is in third place. Then, he runs faster and passes two students. Near the end, Ali feels tired, but he does not stop. He remembers to stay strong. Finally, he reaches the finish line first.

Ali is very happy. His friends clap for him. The teacher gives him a gold medal. Ali feels proud because he did his best.
