Historical Places in Saudi Arabia

Saudi Arabia is a country rich in history and culture. It has many historical places that show the importance of the region in ancient and Islamic history. These places attract visitors from all over the world.

One of the most famous historical sites is Al-Ula. It is home to Madain Saleh, which was built by the Nabataean civilization more than 2,000 years ago. The site contains rock-cut tombs and beautiful carvings. It is also a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Another important place is Diriyah, near Riyadh. Diriyah was the first capital of the Saudi state and played a major role in the history of Saudi Arabia. Today, visitors can see old buildings made of mud bricks that show traditional Najdi architecture.

Makkah and Madinah are also historical and religious cities. Millions of Muslims visit them every year for Hajj and Umrah. Madinah is home to the Prophet's Mosque, which has great historical and spiritual value. These historical places help people understand Saudi Arabia's past and preserve its cultural heritage for future generations.

The Value and Challenges of Sporting Life

Sporting life plays an important role in many people's lives, especially young students. Playing sports helps improve physical health by making the body stronger and more active. It also teaches important values such as teamwork, patience, and respect. When students join a team, they learn how to cooperate with others and follow rules.

In addition, sports can improve mental health. Exercise reduces stress and makes people feel happier. Many students feel proud when they achieve their goals in sports competitions. Winning a game can increase confidence, but even losing can teach valuable lessons about effort and improvement.

However, sporting life also has challenges. Athletes may face injuries if they are not careful. Training requires time and hard work, which can sometimes affect school studies. Some players feel pressure to win, and this may cause stress. It is important to balance sports with education and rest.

In conclusion, sporting life has both value and challenges. With good organization and a positive attitude, sports can help students grow into strong and responsible individuals.

[2] Read the following passage and answer True or False:

Healthy Food

Healthy food is very important for our bodies and minds. It gives us the energy we need to study, play, and do our daily activities. Eating healthy food helps us grow strong and keeps our body working properly. There are many types of healthy food such as fruits, vegetables, milk, eggs, fish, and whole grains. These foods contain vitamins and nutrients that protect us from illness.

It is important to eat a balanced diet every day. This means we should eat different kinds of food in the right amounts. We should also avoid eating too much fast food, fried food, and sugary snacks because they can cause health problems like obesity and tooth decay. Drinking enough water is very important because it helps our body stay fresh and active.

In addition, healthy food improves our concentration and helps us do better in school. Students who eat healthy meals can focus more and feel more energetic during the day. Parents and schools should encourage children to choose healthy meals and develop good eating habits from a young age.

In conclusion, healthy food is the key to a strong and happy life. By eating well and making good choices, we can protect our health and enjoy a better future.

Mark (T) for True and (F) for False:

1- Healthy food helps us do daily activities.
2- A balanced diet means eating only one type of food.
3- Fruits and vegetables are unhealthy.
