Friendly Cities

Some people say that people who live in cities are not friendly. They think that people who live in cities are always in a hurry and that they are too busy to talk to other people. This may be true. In cities that have more crime rate, people are sometimes afraid to be friendly to strangers. They think it is safer not to talk to people that they don't know.

a recent study looked at cities around the world to find out which city was the friendliest. The researchers tried to find out where people were the most helpful to other people. To find out, they pretended to have some problems. For example, they dropped a pen while standing on the street and waited for someone to pick it up. They also pretended to have an injury while walking down the street to see if someone would help them.

These researchers decided that the friendliest city in the world was the city of Rio De Janeiro in Brazil. Two other cities that they thought were friendly were San Jose, in Costa Rica and Madrid in Spain. The researchers found that in general, smaller quieter cities were friendlier than busy, crowded cities

Dear Miss Manners,

Last spring my husband and I bought a new vacation home. It is a beautiful house on a private beach. We were looking forward to spending a peaceful, relaxing summer alone on the beach and in our new home. Well, we haven't even moved in yet and distant family members who we have not seen in years have started calling us! Suddenly, everyone wants to come and visit us and stay for a week! We don't mind having close family to come and stay for a day or two, but I don't want to spend the whole summer looking after lots of other people and entertaining them. I have already made a few distant family members angry by telling them we are too busy for visitors. Please help! How can I tell my family politely that I don't want any houseguests this summer?

----Fatima

Dear Fatima,

I'm sorry that your plans for a quiet summer are not working out. Uninvited guests can be annoying! I suggest that you tell your family that your house is not ready for visitors yet. Tell them that your husband will be fixing the leaky roof and you'll be cleaning up after the old owners. Suggest they come and visit you in the wintertime instead. This might keep people away until next summer at least!

Kindness is Catching

There is an idea that the world can become a better place if one person is kind to another person. When you are nice to someone else, it makes you feel good about yourself. Also, if you are nice to someone else, that person feels good and might do something nice for another person. In this way, people will be nicer to each other. There are many easy things that you can do every day to make other people happy. Here are a few ideas: Say hello to strangers when you pass them in the street. Pay for the coffee or tea of the person who is behind you in line. If someone is in a hurry, let them go ahead of you in line. Greet a store clerk and ask him or her about his or her day. Write kind comments on Internet blogs. Walk through your neighborhood and pick up trash that is on the street. If you go to the grocery store or a local farm, pick up food for a neighbor. Write a note to your teacher to say that you enjoyed a lesson. Make cookies or treats and hand them out for no special occasion.
